

Leaders Recognition

Call up Kevin Becker, Leon Meger, Shane Pemrick, if they are there. They have all attended 4 Roundtables so far this year, and this is their 5th. For every 5 Roundtables people attend, they receive a “gold” bead instead of the blue bead.

Leaders Recognition

Preparation: Have a gold bead and medal for all three leaders

CUBMASTER: Thank you! I’m so happy to see all of you at the first-ever District Rolling Hills Glitter Awards! In fact, I’m beaming! (Gives audience a great big smile.)

The Glitter Awards honor those adults in our District who really shine! The adults we honor tonight radiate the Cub Scout spirit. They sparkle as they do their best to live the Cub Scout Promise. They gleam as they serve others and help their packs go. They positively shine as they work to help their youth advance in rank. So, let’s light up the night with the brilliant deeds of our Cub Scout Leaders!

Driver Recognition

Preparation: Have blue car beads for everyone who comes up

CUBMASTER: Tonight we will honor our racecar drivers who have brought someone new to the monthly Roundtable. An announcer starts a race by telling the drivers, “Drivers, start your engines.” We have several adults who have started their engines and have brought someone to the Roundtable. Will the adults who have driven their other Pack leaders please come forward?

Victory lane, also known as the winner’s circle, is the spot on each racetrack’s infield where the race winner parks the winning car and enjoys their victory celebration. Let’s cheer the all the adults in our district who have all made it to victory lane.
